Dear Senator Warner:

Thank you very much for your letter of 16 June 1982, concerning our proposed building expansion program.

We attach great importance to this program and are doing everything practical to ensure that we get the best product possible. We are also concerned that the Agency select the very best firm available. You may rest assured that the selection process now in progress has been designed to ensure that all firms receive thorough and objective consideration.

The Agency is in compliance with Public Law 92-582 (the Brooks Act) and the Federal Procurement Regulations.

Your interest in our new building program is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey

Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Bill:

Earlier this year, I had discussed with Bobby Inman the expansion proposal involving the Central Intelligence Agency's complex in Langley, Virginia.

I have been contacted by Sid Dewberry, President of Dewberry and Davis, an outstanding architectural and engineering firm in Virginia, who is bidding on the expansion project. While Dewberry and Davis are well established and respected for their professionalism, that is not the purpose of my letter.

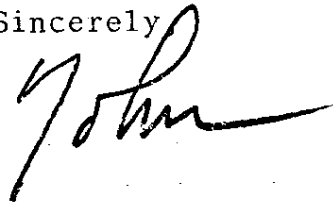

It is my understanding that "politics" may be creeping into the selection process. I have discussed with Bobby that my only concern is that the very best firm be selected and that politics should not play a role in determining which firm is to perform the expansion work.

I am well aware of some of the community concerns, but assure you that this expansion in Virginia is something that I support and am confident that it will be well received.

Thank you for your attention to this concern.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely

John W. Warner

Dear John -

I enjoyed being with you and Mr. Casey at the breakfast yesterday morning.
I hope these can be scheduled periodically, because they are a very pleasant way to get some business done.

In connection with our brief conversation at the close of the meeting, I just want to be sure that my friend, Bill Vosbeck of U.V.K.R.

Inc. of Alexandria — the only local architectural firm in the competition to design the new CIA Building — has received a full consideration to be awarded the final architectural contract.

So long as Bill's firm has a full chance to make its case, I'm not concerned about which firm is selected to do the architectural work on the new building.

Keep up the good work, John.
All best wishes

The Honorable Romano L. Mazzoli

Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Mazzoli:

Thank you for your note of 4 June 1982. I am glad you found our working breakfast of value and share your hope that we may find this a useful forum in the future.

You may rest assured that the firm of Vosbeck, Vosbeck, Kendrick and Redinger, Inc., (VVKR) along with their two associated firms, is receiving full and equitable consideration in the selection of a design firm for our new building. We attach great importance to this program and are doing everything practical to ensure that we get the best product possible. We have had successful dealings with VVKR in the past and are taking that experience into account during our deliberations.

Your interest in our new building program is deeply appreciated. I look forward to further discussions as this critically important project moves forward.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
